JULY - AUGUST 2007

POINTS FROM THE PREACHER

Dear Friends:

The past few weeks have been rather difficult. With the recent dragster tragedy in Selmer, I have truly learned what it means to “trust in the LORD with all [my] heart, and lean not on [my] own understanding” (Prov. 3:5). While I may not always understand the ways and workings of God, I do understand that His ways work toward His glory—for that I am grateful.

As our community begins the healing process, I ask that you keep us all in your prayers. Pray also that God will help me at this moment to clearly convey the message that He “comforts us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort those who are in any trouble, with the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God” (II Cor. 1:4).

In closing, as I am beginning to gear up for several fall revival meetings, I ask that you pray earnestly that the Holy Spirit will empower my preaching and that many souls will be saved as a result. Blessings!

Bro. Blake
